

Richland College
Dallas County Community College District

Get BACK ON TRACK!

DEFINITIONS OF PROBATION, SUSPENSION OR DISMISSAL STUDENTS

Acceptable Scholastic Performance is the maintenance of a GPA of 2.0 or better.

Probation I

Students who fail to earn a GPA of 2.0 are placed on Probation One. Students on Prob One may have course work and total number of credit hours limited and may be required to register for specific courses. Students on Prob One must complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of at least 2.0. Students will remain on Prob One until their cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher.

Suspension

Students on Prob One will be placed on Suspension if they fail to complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of 2.0. Students on Suspension are ineligible to enroll in credit courses in the following semester without being readmitted by a suspension advisor.

Probation II

Students readmitted after Suspension will be placed on Prob Two. Students on Prob II may have course and total number of credit hours limited and may be required to register for specific courses. Students on Prob Two must complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of at least 2.0. Students will remain on Prob Two until their cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher.

Dismissal

Students on Prob Two will be placed on Academic Dismissal if they fail to complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of at least 2.0. Students on Academic Dismissal are ineligible to enroll in credit courses in the following semester without being readmitted by a suspension advisor.

Probation III

Students on Academic Dismissal will be readmitted on Prob Three. Students on Prob Three may have course work and total number of credit hours limited and may be required to register for specific courses. Students on Prob Three must complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of at least 2.0. Students will remain on Prob Three until their cumulative GPA is 2.0 or higher.

Indefinite Dismissal

Students on Prob Three will be placed on Indefinite Academic Dismissal if their fail to complete at least one credit course in their next semester and earn a semester GPA of at least 2.0. Students on Indefinite Dismissal may be required to sit out one year before being readmitted to the college.